

XM provides me with news, information & entertainment at great value. Using its current technology it can be enhanced to provide news & information that will enhance safety and the quality of life during my leisure travels or business trips. So what are the disadvantages? This is a free economy let the local station compete instead of protectionism. ED